

Media Policy

Yorkshire English School sometimes wishes to use photographs or videos of learners in its promotional materials and it a condition of enrolment that learners agree to their photographs/videos being used for marketing purposes. However, if a learner does not wish their photograph or video to be used, they can opt out at any time.