

Learners printing documents policy

Yorkshire English School encourages learners to use the IT facilities in the School and to print educational materials for study use. Within reason the School allows limited printing and copying of personal documents. A small fee may be charged to learners who are seen to be printing or copying large amounts of non-educational documents.